The Plan

An Exploratory Dive Trip & a Year End Vacation

This trip, is NSA exploring a new dive location within our shores. What caught our eyes was not only the scenic beach & the nearby locales, but also the fact that this is a lesser known destination in India for Scuba Diving. Located very close to the Sindhudurg diving scene, which for long has been associated with being a touristic, try dive spot.

The reputation of a particular dive centre, Diver of Vingoria, further caught our attention for providing authentic, wholesome experiences for certified scuba divers as well as those looking to learn.

On this trip, we will be exploring the diving around the coasts of Bhogwe through 6 curated fun dives. No courses.

What can You expect on this trip?

- 6 Fun Dives including 1 Dawn Dive - No Courses
- Package price will include full set equipment rental including dive computer plus our fee for arranging the trip
- Optional (and at extra cost) - Kayaking & a evening barbecue dinner

THE PRICING

A One Time Rate, as we are Exploring Ourselves

The 6 Dives Package (incl. GST) - ₹30,000/-

Accommodation - ₹12,000/- p.p. for 4 nights

23- 27 December is a long weekend around Christmas. There will be a crowd at the beach as one would expect. The options available are split between budget stays near the dive shop, mid-range beach front resorts and then slightly more high end resorts. Prices range from ₹2000 & upwards per night.

However, from our research, all these places which are close to the Bhogwe Beach & dive shop, will be crowded & jam packed during the long weekend. We did a little more digging & we then found this gem of a Airbnb Villa, 5kms from the dive shop, atop the hills, overlooking the sea. It can accommodate 6 pax. Its away from all the hustle. It was love at first sight.

3 Rooms, a Queen Bed in each, 6 Divers, 2 in each room.

Comes with a fully equipped kitchen for some basic cooking, and we also can easily source locally cooke food.

MEALS ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE PRICE.

THIS WILL BE PAID DIRECTLY TO AIRBNB BY EACH PARTICIPANT.
